

Conflict of Interests

Journal of Insect Biodiversity and Systematics

All submitted manuscripts for the original research articles, revisions, catalogues, taxonomic monographs, nomenclatural notes, reviews, methodology, book reviews, etc.. and the articles publishing in the Journal of Insect Biodiversity and Systematics must be accompanied by a conflict of interest disclosure statement. This statement must be declaring by the authors that they do not have any conflicts of interest. Any direct or indirect financial interests or other situations that led to bias in all scientific or commercial aspects of the work by the various funding personal/institutional sources should be clarified as follows:

- All authors have participated in (a) conception and design, or analysis and interpretation of the data; (b) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and (c) approval of the final version.
- This manuscript has not been submitted to, nor is under review at another journal or other publishing venue.
- The authors have no affiliation with any organization with a direct or indirect financial interest in the subject matter discussed in the manuscript.
- The following authors have affiliations with organizations with direct or indirect financial interest in the subject matter discussed in the manuscript.

All authors can privately disclose their potential conflicts of interest to Editor-in-Chief of the Journal at the time of submission. Otherwise, the corresponding author is expected to obtain the relevant information from all co-authors listed below, and to submit the form.
